

German Internationals & Deutsche Meisterschaft

2019

Alsfeld - Germany
05.08. – 11.08.2019

Bund der Militär- und Polizeischützen (BDMP) e.V.

Weapons/ Equipment:

There will be no general security and compliancy checks. So all risks and consequences are the participants own responsibility. Competition management reserves the right to carry out inspections randomly. Trigger weights defined in wa1500 rulebook are mandatory. Noneobedience to this procedure leads to disqualification.

Regular "Out of the box" / stock security features of the participants weapons must all be present and functioning. Injuring this rule leads to disqualification.

Prior to competition start and in case of any doubt of compliance participants may present the respective weapons / weaponparts to Competition management for decision of compliance.

Also during the match Competition management and Range Officers can require participants to hand over their weapons, ammunition and equipment for checks. Noneobedience to this rule leads to disqualification. In case participants suspecting others to use none compliant weapons ammunition or equipment they are obliged to instantly report this to competition management.

Ammunition:

Magnum loads and high speed loads are prohibited. Maximum muzzle energy allowed is 600 Joule. Loads exceeding this limit are considered Magnum loads.

Score card:

For each match the participant receives a scorecard (in duplicate) the original of which is for competition management. The scorecard has to be supplied to Competition management within 30 minutes of the respective matches end.

Once supplied a scorecard is final:

Missing hits on a scorecard remain unconsidered on data input. Once on a scorecard a matches maximum possible hits are exceeded the exceeding hits will be deducted from top score to down score until the correct number of hits is reached. Reclamations to this this procedure will not be considered.

Exemption to this rule:

Upon evident data transfer failures the participant may apply for a competition jury decision based on the participants actual hits on the original target which has to be supplied to the jury.

Scoring procedure:

Each participant scores the target of his right neighbour. The shooter most right scores the target on range 1. The scores are initially to be filled in the scoring tables on the original target. Then these are copied to the shooters score card. Failures on copying scores are instantly to be and are to be confirmed by signature. The scoring shooter stores the completed score card together with the targets.

During the scoring procedure the shooter remains distant to its own target and the shooter is not allowed to take any influence on the scorers decision. No competitor will score their own target nor may a competitor score the targets of a competitor from their own club. Noneobedience to this procedure leads to disqualification.

Upon finalization of scoring the shooter controls its target, hits and the score card and signs it once agreeing. In case of none agreement no signature is required instead the scorecard and original target may be presented to competition management for final control and decision). Competition management keeps the right to control and correct scorings according to the principle of randomness or on given event. Any manipulation of the scorecard will force a disqualification for the competition. A protest against this disqualification is not valid.

Range Officer:

Orders of Range Officers are obligatory. There are no disputes allowed on the range. Objections to Range Officer decisions have to be made with the competition management.

Competition Management:

Competition Management decides on disputes in all cases (rulebook 11.1).

Jury (rulebook 11.2):

The Competition Jury is comprised of 5 shooters, of which one German shooter and four foreign shooters. The German shooter being the chairman.

Alcohol/Drugs:

Alcohol is (simply) prohibited with disregard to type and quantity. Any participating shooter using alcohol will be disqualified and his participation will terminate. This also includes that all his scorings previously achieved will be null and the competition fee will decay.

Unsportsmanlike conduct:

If a participant's behavior judged by the jury as unsportsmanlike, this leads to immediate disqualification from the event, the entry fee forfeited.

Outfit:

According to the sports character of this event participants are not assumed to wear para military clothing nor such with offending motives.

Changes:

Subject to changes of announcement without notice.
